When the paste is applied, by catching the handle of the frame and pushing it along the wall or bill-board, the paper is smoothly pasted. By the use of it wall-papering is made child's play.

Attention is called to the advertisement in another column of the Southern Female College located at Petersburg, Va. This well-known institution for the education of young women is one of the oldest and yet one of the most progressive in Virginia, having been chartered by the Virginia Legislature in 1803, during the war, and having been in continuously successful operation since its foundation. The intellectual training is combined with unusually happy influences of home life in the College. Parents of the Eastern Shore whose daughters are ready to leave for College would do well to consider the advantages offered by this institution.
